SUPPORTING STUDENTS WITH HEARING LOSS COURSE OUTLINE

1. INFORMATION MODULE

Learn about:

- Deaf culture
- indicators of hearing loss
- facts and figures
- types of hearing loss
- impact of hearing loss

2. ASSESS MODULE

Learn about:

- Multi-Tiered Systems of Support (MTSS) and Response to Intervention (RTI)
- hearing screening
- the classroom environment
- hearing, language and literacy assessments for students with hearing loss

3. PLAN MODULE

Learn about:

- using collaborative and student-centred planning
- collaborative learning teams
- identifying barriers to student achievement, engagement and wellbeing
- home and school partnerships
- establishing student goals

4. TEACH MODULE

Learn about:

- whole-school, classroom and individual approaches
- Universal Design for Learning (UDL)
- Auslan Victorian Curriculum
- working with Auslan and English
- assistive technology
- strategies for self-advocacy, vocabulary, phonological awareness and social communication
- specialist support
- external assessment provisions

5. EVALUATE MODULE

Learn about:

- progress monitoring
- reflective practice

To apply, access:
Inclusive Classrooms Professional Learning Catalogue

For more information, contact:
Inclusive.Classrooms@education.vic.gov.au

Course features

- The course is facilitator-led to provide support and guidance.
- Online discussions enable participants to share their experience and learn from others.
- Two activities (assignments) allow participants to practise applying their knowledge with facilitator support.